better cognitive and technological skills school counselors have an enormous impact on students achievement and their success in their post secondary education yet initiatives to improve student outcomes often overlook them fitzpatrick and costantini present their own action based curriculum for high school counselors that will meet the needs of 21st century students helping to foster their growth and ambition and actively engage them in learning what they need to succeed beyond high school important steps covered in this curriculum include making the transition to ninth grade successful using technology in the advising process such as online resources for college and career research assessing interests and structuring advising sessions preparing for standardized testing and using it to motivate students about the college application process assisting students in researching careers and colleges making the most of college visits applying for college and writing the application essay equally important the book focuses on the counselor and his or her role as an advocate and leader for students and details running a guidance office working with parents and writing secondary school reports while applicable for all school counselors and students the authors curriculum has a special focus on students in urban public schools to enable them to have the same experiences as their counterparts in suburban and private schools an accompanying cd contains the tables exercises and charts from the book so they can be easily accessed and reproduced respect for infant toddler development and mindful caregiving practices for this age group serve as the cornerstones for this textbook in 1980 when this textbook was first published infants and toddlers were scarcely mentioned in early childhood education the existing curriculum focused on preschool children 3 4 and 5 year olds society however was changing and more children were entering out of home care at a younger age and preschool teachers were experiencing new challenges traditional preschool curriculum with circle time and group activities did not fit the needs of 2 year olds and younger the authors of this book recognized that more specific curriculum was needed and worked together to address these new and challenging issues in early care and education the major theme of this textbook the idea of respectful responsive and reciprocal adult infant toddler interactions has been the same with each edition the philosophy of magda gerber and the theory of emmi pikler provide the textbook with a unique approach while outlining well established practices designed to promote infant and toddler well being magda gerber a los angeles infant expert came from hungary her friend and colleague dr emmi pikler a theorist and researcher also from hungary had established group care for infants and toddlers after world war ii
