academic title by the American Library Association's Choice Magazine in 2000. The expanded second edition is packed with insights, anecdotes, and updated research. It provides mentors with a road map for helping new teachers become confident, reflective educators. The collaborative model outlined in the book is enlightening and rewarding for the mentor and the novice alike. The authors have incorporated the latest findings on all aspects of mentoring, from preparing to be a mentoring guide or coach to school culture and parent outreach. Teachers will find five new chapters on working with all students, working with parents, curriculum mapping, school culture, and the role of administrators within an effective mentoring system. Organized around a series of questions, the book allows mentors to quickly locate practical advice to match any mentoring situation. The range of resources includes recommendations for pairing mentors and teachers questions to jump-start conversations, ideas for teacher reflection, and answers to the most commonly asked mentor questions. Mentoring Beginning Teachers, Second Edition, provides a comprehensive and tested plan for helping mentors guide new teachers in moving beyond the basics of plan, teach, evaluate to a higher level of joint assessment and inquiry. Teacher Research is an extension of good teaching: observing students closely, analyzing their needs, and adjusting the curriculum to fit the needs of all. Ruth Shagoury and Brenda Miller Power present a framework for teacher research along with an extensive collection of narratives from teachers engaged in the process of designing and carrying out research projects to inform their instruction.
